Recommendation

It is my privilege to recommend Ashlee Mitch G. Regis for the PCAF scholarship. As her teacher at Holy Infant Parochial School Sta. Cruz Marinduque Inc., I have had the opportunity to see her grow both academically and personally. Over the years, I have witnessed her persistence, discipline, and sincere love for learning. Ashlee is a hardworking and intelligent student who consistently achieves strong academic results. She approaches each lesson with enthusiasm, participates actively in discussions, and completes her tasks with diligence. Despite financial challenges, she has remained committed to her studies and continues to excel through determination and focus.

Beyond academics, Ashlee is respectful, dependable, and demonstrates leadership in school and community activities. She balances her responsibilities with maturity and shows admirable qualities such as teamwork, initiative, and integrity. Her ability to manage her time well while excelling in different areas is a reflection of her resilience and strong character.

I am confident that Ashlee Mitch G. Regis has the ability, commitment, and drive to succeed in her future studies and beyond. I wholeheartedly recommend her for the PCAF scholarship and believe she is a worthy candidate.
