Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to recommend Aedrienne Selene Finuliar, one of my students at Holy Child Academy, whom I have known for the past two years as her advisor and subject teacher. In this time, I have seen her grow not only as a student but also as a young woman with great potential.

Aedrienne is one of my top students, and she has shown consistent dedication to her studies. She listens well, participates actively in class, and always gives her best effort in every task. What I admire most is her genuine love for learning and her positive attitude that often encourages her classmates. She is cheerful, hardworking, and responsible—qualities that make her stand out both inside and outside the classroom.

I am confident that Aedrienne will carry these same qualities into her college life. She has my full support and recommendation, and I believe she will be an asset to your institution.
