Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

Dear Scholarship Committee,

I'm writing to you today to recommend Eljen B. Tomongtong for this scholarship. As the Barangay Captain, I've seen firsthand how much Eljen cares about our community.

Eljen has shown real leadership skills in different projects. For example, he led a group of young people in cleaning up our barangay plaza. He organized everyone, made sure they had the right tools, and kept them motivated. He's a natural leader who gets things done.

Eljen is also a hard worker and has accomplished a lot. He helped organize a free tutoring program for younger students in our barangay. He volunteered his time to teach them math and science, and many of those students have improved their grades because of him.

Eljen's work has had a big impact on our community. The cleanup drive made our plaza a more beautiful and safe place for everyone. The tutoring program has given younger students a better chance to succeed in school. Eljen is always looking for ways to help others and make our barangay a better place to live.

Eljen is a responsible, kind, and dedicated young man. He's a role model for other young people in our community. I am confident that he will continue to do great things in the future.

I strongly recommend Eljen B. Tomongtong for this scholarship. He deserves it.
