Recommendation

To the Selection Committee of the Peace Corps Alumni Foundation for Philippine Development Scholarship

My name is Jun P. Balili, and I am the Learning Area Coordinator for Mathematics and I.T at National University – Mall of Asia Senior High School. As the applicant's teacher, I am honored to serve as a recommender and to provide my perspective on Sarah's leadership, accomplishments, and impact on our school community.

Sarah has consistently shown exceptional leadership in both academics and extracurricular activities. As president of the Senior High School Student Government in Grade 12, she spearheaded events that fostered both academic responsibility and camaraderie among students. Her ability to lead with initiative and maturity sets her apart from her peers.

She is equally committed to academic excellence. Ranked first in her Grade 11 batch, she graduated with high honors and earned multiple awards, including leadership, co-curricular, and outstanding performance in language and humanities. These achievements highlight not only her dedication but also her commitment to making a meaningful difference.

Sarah's presence has had a lasting impact on our community. She embodies integrity, compassion, and resilience—qualities that, combined with her proven leadership, give me full confidence that she will continue to excel and contribute greatly in her future endeavors.

I strongly recommend Sarah Dimitrova O. Stancheva for the PCAFPD scholarship. Please feel free to contact me at jpbalili@nu-moa.edu.ph if you require further information.

Sincerely,

Jun P. Balili
