Recommendation:

As the President of YouActive Barotac Viejo, I am honored to recommend Tressha A. Barretto for the PCAFPD scholarship. Tressha has been an active and dependable member of our organization, and I have personally witnessed her passion for community service, her not so quiet unwavering leadership, and her deep sense of responsibility to others.

Tressha's commitment to youth and community development is most evident in her involvement with our flagship initiatives. She played a key role in Tulun-an sa Kabarangayan, an education project aimed at supporting children in baranggays in Barotac Viejo with school supplies and tutorial sessions. She was not only hands-on in logistics but also deeply engaged with the children, embodying the heart of our mission—to bring learning and hope closer to where it's needed most.

She also actively contributed to our civic education campaigns and youth-led outreach efforts such as Face-painting Booth, Tree Growing Activities, Eco Youth Camp, where she helped facilitate materials and programs to go smoothly during events. Through these efforts, Tressha has demonstrated a rare blend of humility, consistency, and initiative that inspires her peers and uplifts those we serve.

Tressha is not just a volunteer; she is a leader in action. I wholeheartedly support her application and believe she is truly deserving of this scholarship.
