Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to wholeheartedly recommend Mr. Joshua N. Bonto for your scholarship program. As her teacher, I have witnessed his dedication, perseverance, and strong academic performance.

Mr. Joshua N. Bonto consistently demonstrates exceptional leadership and initiative, excelling not only in academics but also in extracurricular activities such as a member of Arts & Design and the Vice president of Culture and Arts club, a talented student excelling in dance. What sets him apart is his genuine commitment to learning, positive attitude, and the ability to inspire peers through teamwork and integrity. These accomplishments highlight [his/her/their] ability to inspire peers, foster collaboration, and turn ideas into action.

I am confident that Mr. Joshua N. Bonto will thrive in higher education and contribute meaningfully to your academic community. Granting him this scholarship would not only support a deserving scholar but also an individual determined to make a lasting impact.
