Recommendation

It is with great honor that I recommend Adriane Yuri Micarsos for your scholarship program. I have had the privilege of witnessing his growth as a student and leader, and I can confidently attest to his outstanding academic performance, inner directed qualities, and unwavering dedication to community service.

Academically, Adriane Micarsos has consistently excelled, maintaining high grades across subjects while demonstrating a genuine love for learning. He approaches challenges with determination and curiosity, setting a strong example for peers. Adriane has shown resilience and commitment to education, never allowing circumstances to hinder his pursuit of being a competent and Christ centered individual.
