Recommendation

To the PCAFPD Scholarship Committee:

It is with great pride and deep respect that I recommend Mark Angelo Simbre for the PCAFPD Scholarship. Angelo is not only an exceptional student but also a remarkable young man whose resilience, intelligence, and compassion have inspired many in our community.

Raised by a single mother, Angelo has learned early on the values of perseverance, responsibility, and hard work. Despite financial challenges, he has consistently excelled in his studies, finishing with high honors and proving that his innate intelligence and determination can overcome any obstacle. His academic success is matched only by his humility and willingness to share his talents with others.

Angelo's leadership has always stood out. As a Supreme Student Government officer, he served with integrity and vision, making sure that his fellow students' needs were addressed. As a campus journalist, he used the power of words to inspire awareness and positive change. In the classroom, he naturally takes the lead in research and group projects, while in the arts and dances, he uplifts and motivates others to shine. Truly, his leadership is incomparable in all aspects—he leads not only by example but also by heart.

Beyond school, Angelo has been a key player in our community, offering his time, skills, and creativity to projects that bring people together and make a lasting impact. His ability to balance academics, leadership, and service is a testament to his discipline and sense of purpose. Even now, as a freshman at Tarlac State University pursuing Fine Arts, he continues to embody the values of dedication, creativity, and service to others.

Angelo's story is one of courage, brilliance, and compassion. He is a young leader who has already made a difference in our community, and with the help of the PCAFPD Scholarship, I believe he will reach even greater heights and use his gifts to help many more people.

I wholeheartedly and without reservation recommend Mark Angelo Simbre for this scholarship. He is truly deserving, not just because of his achievements, but because of the kind of person he is—driven, humble, and committed to serving others.
