Applicant Information:

My name is Lebron James T. Caraan, a 17-year-old Grade 12 STEM student at Lutucan Integrated National High School. I was born on August 9, 2008, and I currently live with my grandmother since my parents are separated and living far away. Despite these challenges, I remain determined to pursue higher education. My dream is to take up Engineering because I am deeply interested in science and technology and I want to use my knowledge to help improve lives and contribute to nation-building. Applying for this scholarship is a big step for me, as it will give me the opportunity to continue my studies and achieve my goals despite financial limitations.
