

PCAFPD Human Development Grant

Project Overview

Instructions: This document should not exceed three pages.

*This document is the most important piece of the application, and serves as the basis for our review process. Your audience will be a group of American reviewers who have some general knowledge and experience with the Philippines, but are not subject matter experts, and may not be familiar with your local culture/politics/situation. Please provide an overview of your project. Make sure to address the following bold points. We have provided some guiding questions that may help you craft your response:

- Project objectives and goals
- Rationale:
  - Why is this project important?
  - Why is this project a priority?
- Relevant context:
  - What information is helpful for the selection committee to know about your situation?
- Intended impact:
  - What quantifiable and qualitative signs will you use to determine success?
  - What sort of return on investment do you expect from this project?
  - What are the expected short- and long-term impacts?
- Requested budget:
  - Overall amount you are requesting
- Implementation Plan with 12 month timeline:
  - How will you accomplish your goals?
  - What are the key steps and milestones?