Recommendation

I am pleased to recommend Ms. Ghilaine Adelaide Dugtong as a candidate for your scholarship program. I had the privilege of teaching Ghilaine during her time at San Francisco de Malabon Parochial School, where she consistently demonstrated excellence in academics, leadership, and service.

Ghilaine was an academic awardee and served as the President of the Franciscan Students Association for Media and Communications (FSAMC) for School Year 2024–2025. Prior to this, she was an active member of the same organization during School Year 2023–2024. Throughout her years in our school, she proved herself to be an exceptional student with outstanding potential, not only in academics but also in leadership. She effectively led both her classmates and the members of the FSAMC organization with dedication, integrity, and compassion.

As President of FSAMC, Ghilaine demonstrated exemplary leadership by organizing and managing various student activities and initiatives. Under her leadership, the organization received several awards and gained recognition within the school community and among its sister schools. She also initiated meaningful community outreach programs that promoted youth empowerment and environmental stewardship.

One of her most remarkable projects was "Planting Seeds of Compassion: A Feed-A-Stray Project," an initiative aimed at providing food for stray animals within the vicinity of the school. Through her vision and commitment, the project was successfully implemented and received a Gold Award. It has since become one of the flagship programs of the FSAMC organization, leaving a lasting impact on both the school and the community.

Beyond her academic and organizational achievements, Ghilaine is a hardworking, compassionate, patient, and responsible individual. She willingly extends assistance to her classmates whenever they encounter difficulties in their studies and consistently leads with empathy and creativity. She also made significant contributions to the school's marketing and promotional initiatives, demonstrating perseverance, initiative, and a strong sense of responsibility in every task entrusted to her.
