Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

To the Scholarship Selection Committee,

It is with great pleasure and confidence that I write this letter of recommendation for Venice Allyson R. Encarnacion in support of her scholarship application.

I have had the privilege of serving alongside her in our Church Youth Ministry, the "Kristiyanong Kabataan para sa Bayan (KKB)", where she faithfully serves as one of our Core Leaders Secretary. She is one of the key people behind the planning and organization of our ministry's activities with integrity and dedication to God's work. Her wisdom, creativity, and ability to think strategically have greatly contributed to the growth and success of every youth programs.

More importantly, she serves with humility and a genuine heart for God. She is a positive role model to the young people in our Church Ministry, leading not only through her words but also through her actions. Her commitment to serving others, strong work ethic, and Christ-centered character make her an outstanding individual who is deserving of this scholarship.

I am confident that she will apply the same level of excellence, discipline, and perseverance to her academic pursuits. I have no doubt that this scholarship will help her continue to grow and become an even greater blessing to her community and to those around her.

Without reservation, I highly recommend Venice Allyson R. Encarnacion for your scholarship program. Thank you for considering her application. If you require any further information, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

ELIJAH FAITH G. ALILIO
