Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I am pleased to recommend Mr. Justine Paul A. Canlas for the PCAFPD Scholarship. As his Senior High School Adviser at the University of Cebu – Lapu-Lapu and Mandaue, I have had the opportunity to observe his academic performance, character, and involvement in school activities.

Justine consistently demonstrates responsibility, diligence, and a genuine commitment to excellence. He approaches his academic responsibilities with dedication while maintaining a respectful and positive attitude toward his teachers and peers. He is dependable, receptive to feedback, and consistently strives to improve himself both academically and personally.

Beyond the classroom, Justine exhibits commendable leadership through his willingness to collaborate, assist his classmates, and participate in school and community-related activities. He leads by example, showing integrity, empathy, and a strong sense of accountability. His ability to work effectively with others and contribute positively to his community reflects the qualities expected of a future leader.

I believe that Justine possesses the determination, character, and potential to maximize the opportunities that this scholarship provides. I am confident that he will continue to excel in his academic pursuits while making meaningful contributions to his school and the wider community. I highly recommend him for the PCAFPD Scholarship without reservation.
