Recommendation

I am pleased to recommend Ms. Romina Soriano Mendioro for the PCAFPD Undergraduate Scholarship. I have known her for the past five (5) years as her adviser and have had the opportunity to observe her academic performance, character, and personal growth.

Romina is a hardworking, responsible, and disciplined student who consistently demonstrates dedication to her studies. She completes her tasks on time, shows initiative in learning, and maintains a positive attitude even when faced with challenges. She is respectful to teachers and classmates, cooperative in group activities, and willing to help others whenever needed.

She also exhibits good moral character, integrity, and a strong sense of responsibility. Her determination to pursue higher education and improve her future makes her a deserving candidate for this scholarship.

Based on my observations, I confidently recommend Romina Soriano Mendioro for the PCAFPD Undergraduate Scholarship. I believe she possesses the character, commitment, and potential to make the most of this opportunity.
