Recommendation

I am pleased to recommend Issa Perdon for the PCAFPD Scholarship. I have known the applicant as her teacher at Gen. Emilio Aguinaldo – Bailen Integrated School, and I have had the opportunity to observe her academic performance, character, and involvement in school and community activities.

Throughout our time together, Issa Perdon has consistently demonstrated responsibility, integrity, and a strong commitment to learning. Despite challenges, she maintained good academic standing through hard work, perseverance, and a genuine desire to succeed. These qualities reflect not only academic capability but also resilience and determination.

In terms of leadership, Issa Perdon willingly accepts responsibilities and serves as a positive role model among peers. She actively participates in school programs, group projects, and community activities, showing initiative, teamwork, and the ability to motivate others. Whether leading or supporting a team, she performs assigned tasks with dedication and professionalism.

The applicant has also demonstrated a strong commitment to community service. She participates in volunteer activities and school outreach programs with enthusiasm and compassion, showing concern for the welfare of others. These experiences have helped develop her sense of social responsibility and civic engagement.

Based on my observations, I believe Issa Perdon possesses the character, leadership potential, and determination necessary to make the most of the opportunities provided by the PCAFPD Scholarship. Given the applicant's financial need, academic potential, and commitment to serving others, I strongly endorse her application without reservation.

I am confident that Issa Perdon will continue to excel academically and contribute positively to the school and the community. I highly recommend her for this scholarship.
