Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

As a former teacher of Joren Anthony Illut, I highly recommend him for the PCAFPD Scholarship Program. During his time in my classes, I observed firsthand how much he has grown and how dedicated he is, most especially to his academics.

Joren has consistently demonstrated outstanding behavior and academic excellence, maintaining a General Weighted Average (GWA) of 95 and graduating from the Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) strand with High Honors. His track record of dedication is clear, having earned recognition as a Consistent Honor Student from Grade 1 to Grade 12. Beyond his exemplary grades, Joren has proven himself to be a highly dependable leader. He served as a Secretariat Committee (2025-2026) of the Supreme Secondary Learner Government (SSLG). In this vital role, he managed team schedules, maintained meticulous record-keeping, and handled formal documentation under pressure. His peers and the faculty often relied on his discipline and presence.

What truly sets Joren apart, and aligns perfectly with the mission of PCAFPD, is his deep commitment to community service and local impact. He has been a devoted youth member and sacristan in our church and eagerly participated in the local SK Clean-Up Drive last summer. Furthermore, his compassion was heavily felt when a natural calamity (earthquake) struck Bogo City, Joren volunteered helped prepare essential clothes, food, and toys for affected people, and directly assisted in distributing food packs to 30 to 50 displaced families.

Given his remarkable academic achievements, demonstrated leadership, and genuine financial need, I firmly believe Joren is highly deserving of this scholarship. This opportunity will help him overcome financial barriers and continue pursuing his dreams to uplift his community. Without any reservation, I know that Joren Anthony Illut will uphold the values of the PCAFPD Scholarship Program with excellence, integrity, and gratitude.
