Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

It is my great pleasure to recommend Ms. Fianne Cajumban for your scholarship program. I have had the opportunity to know her as one of my students when she was in Senior High School, and I can confidently attest her exceptional character, leadership abilities, academic commitment and dedication to serving others.

Ms. Cajumban consistently demonstrates outstanding leadership skills throughout my interactions with her. She possesses the ability to inspire and motivate her fellow students, take initiative in addressing challenges and work collaboratively toward meaningful goals.

Despite challenges that may arise from financial limitations, she remains steadfast in pursuing her educational goals and continues to perform her responsibilities with diligence and excellence. Her perseverance and resilience are qualities that distinguish her from her peers and reflect her commitment to personal and professional growth.

As a student, Ms. Cajumban has shown commendable academic performance and a genuine passion for learning. She approaches her studies with discipline and curiosity, seeking not only to excel academically but also to apply her knowledge toward solving real-world issues affecting her community. Her eagerness to learn and improve herself demonstrates her potential to become a future leader and catalyst for positive change.

One of Ms. Cajumban's most admirable qualities is her commitment to helping others. She consistently demonstrates empathy, respect, and a sincere desire to make a meaningful difference in the lives of those around her. Her positive influence extends beyond the classroom, as she serves as a role model through her work ethic, humility, and dedication to service.

Given her academic promise, leadership potential, commitment to community service, and financial need, I firmly believe that Ms. Cajumban is highly deserving of the PCAFPD Scholarship. This opportunity will not only support her educational aspirations but will also enable her to continue contributing to her community and developing into a future professional who will make significant contributions to Philippine society.

I wholeheartedly endorse Ms. Fianne Cajumban for this scholarship and am confident that she will make the most of this opportunity.
