Recommendation

Sir / Madam,

I am writing this letter to express my full support for the application of Kim Nezele B. Galangan for the PCAFPD Scholarship. I had the privilege of being her Grade 12 adviser at Agno National High School. I have also taught some of her siblings, so I have become familiar not only with her as a student but also with the family's circumstances over the years.

Ms. Galangan comes from a low-income family, and I know that pursuing higher education is not easy for them financially. Despite these challenges, she has always remained focused on her studies and has consistently shown determination to achieve her goals. She never allowed her situation to become an excuse to settle for less. Instead, she worked hard and made the most of every opportunity.

As her adviser, I witnessed her dedication both inside and outside the classroom. She consistently performed well academically and graduated as one of the top-performing students among our 272 graduates during the School Year 2025–2026. She also received recognition for her outstanding performance in Mathematics, Science, English, Communication Arts (English & Filipino), and Social Sciences. These achievements reflect not only her intelligence but also her discipline and strong work ethic.

She is also someone I can genuinely describe as "maaaasahan". Whenever she was given responsibilities, I knew I could count on her to accomplish them well and on time. She served in different student organizations, participated in journalism competitions, and balanced these commitments with her academics without losing sight of her priorities. She leads by setting a good example, treating others with respect, and willingly helping whenever needed.

One quality that I appreciate most about Kim is her willingness to serve others. Even outside of school requirements, she voluntarily tutors for elementary learners at Barangay Boboy, Agno, Pangasinan without asking for anything. This speaks a lot about her character. She believes that education should be shared, and she uses her knowledge to help those who may be struggling.

I have every confidence that Kim will continue to excel in college and make good use of the opportunities that this scholarship will provide. More importantly, I believe she will continue using her education and leadership to serve others. Considering her academic achievements, leadership, financial need, and dedication to helping her community, I wholeheartedly recommend her for the PCAFPD Scholarship.

Thank you for considering her application.

Sincerely,
Engr. Rhoulne S. Vila
