It is a great honor and privilege to provide this recommendation for Lorraine Joyce Delatado in strong support of her application for the PCAFPD Scholarship. Having served as her teacher during her 10th Grade at Nabua National High School, I have personally witnessed her exceptional academic diligence, unwavering principles, and natural leadership capabilities.

During the 2024–2025 academic year when she was in my class, she demonstrated outstanding excellence in my subject, consistently ranking among the top students in her class. Beyond her exemplary academic marks, she displayed a profound eagerness to learn and a strong initiative in comprehending complex ideas.

What truly sets Lorraine apart is the remarkable balance between her brilliance and her profound humility. Even with her intelligence and achievements, she remains remarkably grounded, approachable, receptive to others, and always eager to assist her classmates. As a leader in the top section of the Basic Education Curriculum (BEC), she guided her peers with clarity of purpose, unity, and deep dedication. She possesses an extraordinary ability to inspire, address the needs of her group, and lead with genuine empathy and humbleness.

Beyond her academic and leadership accomplishments, Lorraine embodies resilience and a heartfelt commitment to helping others. I firmly believe that given the right opportunities and support, she will play a vital role as a highly skilled, responsible, and dependable professional who will make a meaningful impact on our society in the future.
