Recommendation

It is with great pleasure that I recommend Jaychrist Mendoza Hornilla, a distinguished graduate of the Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) strand at Sta. Catalina National High School, Sitio Pulong Gubat, Brgy. Sta. Catalina Sur, Candelaria, Quezon. Throughout his senior high school tenure, Mr. Hornilla consistently exemplified leadership, discipline, and an unwavering commitment to academic and extracurricular excellence.

Athletic Leadership and Mentorship

As a varsity volleyball athlete, Mr. Hornilla demonstrated exceptional teamwork, dedication, and sportsmanship. Beyond his contributions on the court, he proactively mentored younger students, imparting his knowledge and refining their volleyball fundamentals. This voluntary guidance underscores his natural leadership abilities and his sincere desire to foster the development of his peers.

Academic Excellence and Personal Integrity

Academically, Mr. Hornilla exhibited a commendable eagerness to learn and consistently strove for distinction throughout his secondary education. His diligence earned him multiple academic awards, reflecting both perseverance and a steadfast commitment to excellence. Equally noteworthy is his exemplary character; throughout his high school years, he maintained an unblemished disciplinary record and was never involved in any guidance or behavioral case.

Institutional and Community Impact
