Recommendation

I am writing this recommendation as Miss Gunao's former subject teacher when she was a student and her former academic coordinator in high school when she began her professional teaching career. She was our former scholar in Filipino Tolerance School when she was in high school, reaching great heights in her academics, and maintaining equal excellence in her co-curricular activities, and non-academic organizations.

Being able to perform in the same level in different aspects of education is an actual feat and a characteristic so fitting for a scholar. She is great in her teaching as well now that she is a teacher. Someone we can always count on in terms of excellent performance and delivery. As her former teacher, this is what we wish for our students, to become the person they can be at full potential and then again still exceed their limits. She has been part of our student government and has been a batch leader ever since grade 7, leading the whole batch in terms of activities and showmanship. She has also served as a junior mentor to the younger high school students and made a positive impact in helping the school produce well-rounded global citizens in the future. She finished high school at the top 3 of her class and has maintained such heights in academics up until in college when she graduated Magna Cum Laude. There is a distinct consistency in Miss Gunao's achievements and commitment to learning.

Thus, I strongly recommend her grant of this scholarship as she has manifested the essential characteristics of an excellent scholar, who gives back to her community, honors the trust and privilege she is given, and fully commits to what she has intended to do. We are assured of her consistency and her nobility in her educational journey.
