Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

As the applicant's reference and fellow Church member, I have had the opportunity to witness his demonstrated leadership, dedication, and commitment to service. He served as a Service Missionary in our district and chose our school as one of the places where he could render his voluntary service.

During his service, he generously used his skills in painting and helped improve the walls and surroundings of our school without asking for or receiving any compensation. Through his actions, we witnessed his diligence, patience, love for work, and willingness to sacrifice for the benefit of others. I was especially impressed by his dedication, as he continued to render his service faithfully despite the long distance he had to travel going home.

His selflessness, strong work ethic, and genuine desire to help the community are truly admirable. He has shown that he can lead by example and inspire others through his hard work, humility, and willingness to serve. His contributions have had a positive impact on our school community, and his service is greatly appreciated.

For these reasons, I highly and wholeheartedly recommend him to the committee. I am confident that he will continue to demonstrate the same dedication, responsibility, leadership, and commitment to service in any opportunity entrusted to him. He is a hardworking, dependable, and service-oriented individual who would be a valuable addition to any organization or community.
