Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I have known the applicant through our church community and through our Education program, which has given me the opportunity to observe her character, participation, and development as a student and as a young leader. In my role as a church vice coordinator and vice president of the choir, I have seen her willingness to participate, cooperate with others, and take responsibility in activities. She is respectful, approachable, and willing to help when needed.

As a student in the Education program, she has also shown a positive attitude toward working with others. She listens to instructions, communicates respectfully, and takes her responsibilities seriously. Although she is still developing her leadership skills, she demonstrates qualities that can help her become a good leader, particularly her willingness to learn, her sense of responsibility, and her concern for the people around her.

What I appreciate most about her is her determination to continue her education despite financial challenges. She understands the value of the opportunity she has been given and remains committed to completing her studies. Her experiences have helped her become more responsible, hardworking, and appreciative of the people who support her.

I believe she is deserving of consideration for this scholarship because she has the potential to grow.
