Recommendation

To the PCAFPD Selection Committee,

I am pleased to recommend Yeshen Amato as a responsible, hardworking, and dedicated student. As a consistent honor student, she has demonstrated a strong commitment to academic excellence while actively participating in extracurricular and community activities.

Yeshen is a responsible leader who knows how to balance her academic responsibilities with service to others. She actively participates in community activities, including clean-up drives, and is also involved in church activities. Through these experiences, she has shown cooperation, initiative, and a sincere willingness to help others.

Despite her many responsibilities, Yeshen manages her time well and remains dedicated to her studies. Her academic achievements, leadership, and commitment to serving her community reflect her discipline and character.

I highly recommend Yeshen Amato for the PCAFPD Scholarship. I am confident that this opportunity will support her educational goals and help her continue to grow as a responsible, hardworking, and service-oriented individual.
