Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

She is a great student and her performance in my subject and in school is exceptional. She has been a representative in numerous competitions in our school, especially in quiz bees. One significant competition that she attended was during an ASEAN quiz bee where she competed against 24 students both in grade 11 and in grade 12 and she came second. As a teacher, I have great admiration for her skills specifically during my class. She shows attentiveness and the genuine drive to learn. She is a role model to her fellow classmates and she is also a leader to them.

Even with her busy schedule, she still finds time to help out in our school and community activities. She willingly tutors her classmates when they struggle with difficult lessons and joins our local cleanup drives around the neighborhood. She has a strong sense of responsibility and a real heart for helping others.
