Recommendation

July 4, 2026

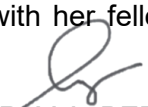

To the PCAFPD Scholarship Selection Committee,

It is with immense pride and confidence that I recommend Ms. Kyla Nicole M. Artiaga for the PCAFPD Scholarship Program. As the Organization Adviser of the Supreme Secondary Learner Government (SSLG) of Goa Science High School, I have worked closely with Kyla for the past two years and have had the privilege of witnessing her journey as a student leader, mentor, and servant of the community.

In all my years as an educator, it is rare to encounter a student whose leadership is so deeply rooted in empathy and service. Kyla never saw leadership as a position to hold but as a responsibility to carry. As SSLG President, she consistently placed the welfare of others before her own. Whether leading school-wide initiatives, representing the school in regional and national engagements, or organizing community outreach activities, she approached every opportunity with sincerity, humility, and an unwavering desire to make a meaningful impact.

Beyond the accomplishments that appear on paper, I have witnessed the quiet sacrifices behind her success. There were opportunities she could have easily missed because of financial limitations. As a public-school student, attending leadership conferences, trainings, and off-campus engagements was not always within her family's means. Recognizing her potential, our school did its best to support her travels and participation whenever resources allowed because we believed she deserved to be in those spaces. Time and again, she proved that our trust was well placed. She represented our school with excellence and always returned with new ideas, fresh perspectives, and an even stronger commitment to serving her fellow learners.

What inspires me most is that every opportunity Kyla receives is never kept to herself. She brings her learnings back to school, shares them with her fellow student leaders, and finds ways to transform those experiences into projects that benefit the wider student community. She understands that leadership is not about collecting achievements—it is about multiplying opportunities for others.

Financial challenges, however, continue to be a reality for her. While they have never diminished her determination, they have limited her ability to seize every opportunity available to her. I sincerely believe that with sustained support through the PCAFPD Scholarship Program, Kyla will be able to focus more on her education while continuing the leadership and community work she has already begun. This scholarship would not simply ease her financial burden; it would allow a young leader with exceptional promise to reach even more communities and inspire even more young people.

As her adviser, I have watched her grow into someone who leads with integrity, compassion, and resilience. I have seen her choose service even when no one was watching and remain grounded despite the recognition she has earned. These are qualities that cannot be taught—they come from character.

I give Kyla Nicole M. Artiaga my highest recommendation without reservation. I am confident that she will honor this opportunity with the same dedication she has shown throughout the years. Supporting Kyla is an investment in a young leader whose impact is only beginning, and I have every confidence that she will continue to create meaningful change wherever life leads her.

Thank you for your time and thoughtful consideration.

Respectfully,

MA. FERLY A. PERIERA
