Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

It is with great pleasure and confidence that I recommend Mr. Jay Aldrin P. Cainglet for the PCAFPD Scholarship. I have had the opportunity to observe his character, leadership, and dedication to service during his studies at Panabo City National High School, and I believe he meets the qualities your program looks for: financial need, academic commitment, community service, and leadership. Mr. Cainglet has consistently demonstrated remarkable leadership. He served as School President for three consecutive years, a role entrusted to him by his schoolmates and teachers. He listens to the concerns of his peers, leads by example, and takes responsibility for the welfare of the student body. He also serves as President of the Youth for Christ organization, where he encourages fellow students in faith, service, and good character. His academic commitment is even more admirable given his circumstances.

Mr. Cajnglet comes from a family with limited financial means. He works at night selling cookies to support himself and his family, while attending school in the day. He has never used hardship as an excuse. Instead, he has shown maturity, resilience, discipline, and a strong sense of responsibility. Mr. Cainglet possesses the qualities that scholarship programs seek in future leaders: integrity, perseverance, humility, and a genuine desire to serve others. I am confident that he will excel in his studies in Accountancy and use his education to help his family and contribute to his community and country. I therefore give Mr. Jay Aldrin P. Cajnglet my highest recommendation for this scholarship. Should you require additional information regarding his qualifications and character, please feel free to contact me.
