Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I have known Zerah Claire A. Inciong for more than a year and it is a pleasure to recommend her for scholarship in your foundation. Having served as Zerah's homeroom adviser at De La Salle Lipa, I have witnessed firsthand her academic dedication, outstanding character, and natural leadership potential.

She has consistently demonstrated academic commitment being a consistent honor student. But beyond her academic performance in class, what sets her apart is her genuine dedication to community service and helping others. She approaches service not merely as a requirement, but as a core personal responsibility—consistently taking initiative to lead her group in their CAPSTONE initiatives, support her peers, and contribute meaningfully to class activities.

Zerah possesses a quiet strength—a focused, diligent individual who accomplishes her goals through persistent effort and unwavering purpose.
