Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I am pleased to recommend Kiel S. Saladas for this scholarship. Having had the opportunity to observe his growth, character, and contributions, I can confidently say that he is an outstanding student who demonstrates exceptional leadership, initiative, and commitment to serving others.

One of his most notable qualities is his ability to lead by example. Rather than seeking recognition, he consistently takes initiative, accepts responsibility, and encourages others to work toward shared goals. He has demonstrated strong leadership through student organizations—active as a science club president, school projects—takes initiative to organize school-based activities, community activities and volunteer work—like clean up drives, tree planting, feeding program, and other outreach programs. Through this he was able to show his ability to communicate effectively, collaborate with diverse individuals, and remain dependable even when faced with challenges. His willingness to use his skills and time for the benefit of others is a quality that distinguishes him as a student and as a member of the community.

Academically he is equally commendable. He approaches responsibilities with discipline, perseverance, and a strong desire to learn. His accomplishments reflect his ability to set goals and work consistently. More importantly, he responds to challenges with determination. I have also been impressed by his character—respectful, responsible, compassionate, and receptive to feedback. His interactions with peers, teachers, and community members reflect maturity and integrity. He has earned the trust of those around him because he follows through on commitments and treats others with respect.

I recommend him without reservation and respectfully encourage the committee to give his application full consideration.

Thank you very much.
