Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

To the PCAFPD Scholarship Committee,

It is my pleasure to recommend Daniela B. Collantes for the PCAFDP Scholarship Program. As their spiritual mentor and leader at EDB EKKLESIA, I have known this applicant for several years. I can say that they are a kind, honest, responsible, and hardworking person.

Collantes is an active member of our church community. They often join church activities, youth programs, community outreach, and charity drives for families in need in Tagum City. Through these activities, they have shown good leadership, kindness, and a strong desire to help others.

I also know about their family's simple background and financial challenges. I believe this scholarship will help them continue their education and reach their dreams. I am confident that they will work hard in college and use their future degree in Financial Management to help their family, serve the community, and contribute to the country's development.

I highly recommend Daniela B. Collantes for this scholarship. They are deserving of this opportunity, and I believe they will make good use of it.
