Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I highly recommend this student, EONNA JILL D. MARTINITO, as a high-performing and responsible learner who consistently demonstrates excellence in my Research subject. She possesses strong leadership skills and effectively takes the initiative in leading her classmates during group activities and class-related tasks. She has also been a consistent and active member of the school's Cheer Hop Dance Organization since 2024 to present, demonstrating her commitment, discipline, teamwork, and dedication to extracurricular activities. In terms of attitude, she is respectful, responsible, cooperative, and approachable, and she consistently shows a positive attitude toward learning and working with others. Her academic performance, leadership abilities, commitment, and commendable character make her a promising student who can contribute positively to any academic or organizational endeavor.
