Recommendation

I am pleased to recommend my hardworking student, Akila Eliz S. Jimenez, for the PCAFPD scholarship. At San Jose Tagapagtanggol Parochial School, where I am her adviser and taught Technology and Livelihood Education (T.L.E) in Grade 8, I had the opportunity to witness or monitor her leadership, academic excellence, and character as a student.

Akila Eliz Jimenez consistently showed commitment to her studies and was a consistent honor student. Furthermore, she was an active member of the student organization at the school while she was a class president in the class. She constantly took the initiative to lead group activities and ensured, as a group leader, that tasks were completed during the collaboration. She's not only proficient at leading at work but can also work cooperatively with her teammates or classmates.

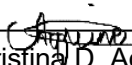

Throughout her time in school, Akila Eliz Jimenez acquired several awards and recognitions that served as evidence of her resilience and hard work. As her former teacher, I also observed that she was not only an intelligent learner but also a diligent, responsible, and respectful student as well.

In my perspective, I believe that Ms. Akila Eliz S. Jimenez has truly exhibited her passion in academics, leadership, and character that make her a deserving candidate for this scholarship. I am certain that she will continue to work diligently toward her educational goals and take full advantage of this opportunity.

Respectfully,

Christina D. Aquino
