Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

To the PCAFPD Scholarship Committee:

It is a great privilege for me to write this letter of recommendation for Erica Moira D. Mapue as she applies for the PCAFPD scholarship. As her former adviser, educator and coach at Palm Crest International School, I have seen her potential, her excellence in academics, outstanding character, and profound dedication. Erica is undoubtedly a remarkable candidate.

Academic Performance and Communication Excellence

Erica's academic record undeniably shows her intellect and values. She consistently ranked as one of the Top 10 students of her batch at Palm Crest International School. I have known her as her English teacher from Fourth Grade until Ninth Grade. I have seen her passion for learning, for making a difference and for striving excellence at all times.

Demonstrated Leadership and School Impact

Erica's leadership skills are commendable. She was a leader of the Student Governing Council. She also became the Editor-in-Chief of Palm Crest International School's official school publication, the Echoes.

Community Engagement and Cultural Representation

Erica's innate confidence and charm stood out as she was crowned Ms. Teen Riyadh. It was a platform for her to be of service to the community. She has a positive attitude towards service.

Erica 's family faces financial constraints that make covering tuition and living expenses difficult without your assistance. Receiving this scholarship will alleviate her current plight and allow her to focus entirely on her studies.

Erica is a well-rounded individual who is a gem in any organization she chooses to join and be a part of. I am fortunate to have had a diligent, talented, and virtuous student like her.
