Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

Dear PCAFPD Committee,

During the time that I have known Ms. Atashna Hailey Villanueva, she has shown leadership by example. In class, she is the one that her peers look up to for help in completing challenging lessons, and she gives her time willingly and generously in her explanations. When group activities are required, she is always able to rally her group together and delegate tasks accordingly so that she could get quality work from everyone, and she always ends up with the best work.

She has been an exemplary student, as evidenced by her maintaining of good grade standing this current term and she has been voluntarily expressed her willingness to represent our college department for the upcoming Quiz Bee competition this November. What makes her an exemplary student is that she always delivers quality work, and she does not compromise on anything.

I would also like to remind the committee that Hailey is a person of good moral character, and she is respectful, humble, and dependable. She is concerned with other people's welfare too, regardless of their status in life. I believe that Hailey has the potential to become a respectable professional, and this scholarship will be a great opportunity for her to contribute to her community.
