I am honored to recommend Pinky Pearl Herrera for the PCAFPD Scholarship. As her Grade 12 class adviser, I have witnessed her growth as a responsible, hardworking, and goal-oriented student. She consistently demonstrates dedication to her studies, cooperates well with her classmates, and willingly takes responsibility when given tasks or leadership roles. Pinky has shown perseverance in balancing her academic responsibilities and actively contributing to school activities. She is respectful, dependable, and determined to pursue higher education despite financial challenges. As she prepares to enter college, I believe that this scholarship would provide meaningful support toward achieving her educational and career goals.
