Recommendation

(PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.)

To the PCAFPD Scholarship Selection Committee:

From my experience with the applicant as her teacher, I have seen her as a capable and responsible student who takes her work seriously. She performs well in class and is someone who can take the lead when needed. She does not easily shy away from responsibilities and is willing to step up when there is a task that needs to be done.

She is also an SSG officer and a campus journalist of PAMANA, our Filipino School Publication. Although I am not her journalism coach, I know of her involvement in these activities, and as her former teacher, I have seen qualities in her that make me confident that she can handle responsibilities well. She knows how to take the lead and, more importantly, she knows how to carry the responsibilities that come with it.

What I appreciate about her is that she can manage her tasks while being involved in different school activities. She is capable of working with others, taking initiative, and getting things done. I believe she can lead, and she can lead well because she is responsible and willing to do her part.

As her former teacher, I believe that she has the potential to grow further as a student leader and to contribute positively to her school and community. I am confident that she will take the opportunity seriously and will do her best in whatever responsibility is given to her.
