Recommendation

I am pleased to recommend CLEMENT MATHEW C. VENERACION for the PCAFPD Scholarship Program. Throughout my association with the CLEMENT, I have witnessed a strong commitment to academic excellence, leadership, and community service. The applicant consistently demonstrates initiative, responsibility, and a genuine desire to contribute positively to the community.

Clement has shown excellent leadership skills by actively participating in and leading various school and community activities. He possess the ability to work effectively with diverse groups of people, motivate others toward common goals, and handle responsibilities with maturity and integrity .

In addition to academic dedication, he joined different contests and activities in school. Like Presscon, contest in Araling Panlipunan Science Quiz Bee and even served as a troop leader in scouting. He gathered different awards in his activities. These experiences have strengthened his sense of social responsibility and demonstrated his potential to become a future leader who will contribute significantly to society.

Given the Clement's financial need, outstanding character, academic potential, and commitment to service, I am confident that he will greatly benefit from the PCAFPD Scholarship Program and will continue to make valuable contributions to his school, community, and future profession. I highly recommend this applicant for your favorable consideration.
