Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I am pleased to recommend Hannah Kim O. Lodriga as an applicant for your scholarship program. I am her former Chemistry teacher at Jose Rizal University, I had the opportunity to observe her commitment and dedication to learning. Hannah demonstrated good relationship with her classmates. She can lead the group with confidence. She can guide and motivate her classmates. She is one of the responsible students in our class. She is always willing to learn new things in our subject matter. She always submits her activities on time. She participates actively during the class discussion. She produced outputs with quality.

I believe Hannah will be a good additional in your program. As she possesses leadership, determination and discipline. I highly recommend her for this opportunity, and I am confident that she will continue doing great things in her college life.
