Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

Be it known to whom this letter may concern:

On Thursday, Sept. 10, 2016, Ms. Reven Mae C. Salaysay came to me personally asking my personal recommendation for a possible application for scholarship program being offered by PCAFPD.

Being a community and church leader in our area, I have noticed that Ms. Salaysay's family were pious churchgoers. Recently, I got the news that her father had passed away, leaving him a wife of 65 y.o. and their only daughter, Mae.

On my brief interview to her, I got knowledge of her academic performance during her junior and highschool.

To my honest discernment, Ms. Salaysay got a very remarkable achievements and consistent in every activities which she had actively participated.

On economic of her family, to my discernment, they are living within their means. Her mother made a living by making & selling rice cake and "suran" to make their ends met.

On personal level, I would strongly recommend Ms. Salaysay to avail and secure a full scholarship from your prestigious institution in order to pursue her dreams.
