Recommendation

To Whom It May Concern:

As Barangay Captain, I have the chance to see which residents are willing to help when the community needs them. Bernard P. Bernido is one of the young people who has earned my respect through his steady participation, good attitude, and willingness to do his part.

Bernard regularly joins Pahina, our monthly community clean-up activity, where residents work together to keep the barangay clean and orderly. He has also given his time to help during our Barangay Fiesta and Araw ng Barangay. In these activities, he works well with people of different ages, listens to instructions, and helps wherever he is needed.

Bernard also shows leadership in a quiet but meaningful way. He encourages fellow youth to recycle and to take simple steps in caring for the environment. Through his example, he helps promote cooperation, cleanliness, and shared responsibility among young people in our barangay.

What I value most about Bernard is his humility. He does not seek attention for what he does, yet he remains dependable and willing to contribute. These qualities show that he has the potential to become a responsible leader who can positively influence others.

For these reasons, I sincerely recommend Bernard P. Bernido for the PCAFPD Scholarship. I believe that supporting him is an investment in a young person who will continue to serve and give back to his community.
