Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

The applicant is someone I can rely on when it comes to her responsibilities in the Elysian Club. She has been involved in the organization for several years and has taken her duties seriously, whether she is working on an assigned task, helping prepare an activity, or assisting other officers. Through her hard work and natural leadership skills, she has managed to bring her clubs through three consecutive years and counting of smooth operation.

During her tenth grade, she took on the President position for the first time but had managed to end the year with a leadership award, service award, and the outstanding club title. This goes the same with her eleventh year (or first year in senior high), this time as the Treasurer. Just as she took on the President position with poise and willingness to learn, her first time as a treasurer ended with another service award. This year, she has returned to the President position and is continuing to prove herself day by day tirelessly.

She is often willing to take on tasks that need to be done and follows through until they are completed. Her consistent participation and sense of responsibility have made her a dependable member of the club. Her commitment is evident in the time and effort she continues to give to the organization and its activities.
