Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

It is my distinct honor and privilege to strongly recommend Akesya Medeja for your scholarship program. As a Master Teacher at New Lucena National Comprehensive High School, I have had the opportunity to observe Akesya's academic growth, exemplary character, and exceptional leadership skills first-hand.

Akesya is a remarkably bold and confident student who stands out for her natural capacity to lead. In the classroom, she steps into leadership roles with ease, guiding her peers with enthusiasm, poise, and clear direction. Her initiative and strong presence were most notably demonstrated when she spearheaded the conduct of the school activity titled "The Voice of the Learners," an initiative that empowered students to express their perspectives and actively engage in meaningful dialogue within our academic community.

Her dedication to our school and community is further highlighted by her remarkable work in writing the official history of New Lucena National Comprehensive High School. This ambitious project required rigorous research, intellectual curiosity, and a deep appreciation for our institution's heritage—qualities that are rare in a student of her age. Her work reflects not only her outstanding communication and analytical skills, but also her commitment to leaving a lasting, positive legacy.

With her bold vision, proven leadership capacity, and strong academic ethic, Akesya possesses all the qualities necessary to excel in higher education and make meaningful contributions to society. Receiving this scholarship will allow her to focus on her aspirations without financial constraints.

I give Akesya Medeja my highest and most enthusiastic recommendation without reservation.
