Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I am honored to recommend Blessie Faith Angel Dela Cruz for the PCAFPD scholarship. In my experience working with her, I have witnessed a consistent demonstration of leadership, academic diligence, and a deep commitment to community service.

Blessie Faith Angel Dela Cruz has shown remarkable leadership skills as the Public Relation Officer in our organization by organizing youth initiatives, cofacilitating community projects, and representing the youth in the community. Her ability to motivate peers, delegate responsibilities effectively, and ensure that projects are done, leaving a significant influence reflects strong sense of responsibility. She has participated in numerous community projects, such as, relief operations, medical missions, and also take part in trainings and seminars. One of her notable accomplishments was spearheading a barangay health awareness campaign specifically, a Smoke-free youth movement: Promoting a Healthy and Drug Free Generation, Blessie, was one of the speakers who did research and shared her knowledge which not only benefited the immediate community but also inspired others to take part in civic engagement.

A youth who embodies remarkable capabilities not only in socio-civic engagement but also in academics, consistently balancing her responsibilities as a student and a leader. This shows how resilient, disciplined, and genuine she is for learning and serving the people. Her commitment to excellence ensures that she will thrive in the rigorous environment of the PCAFPD scholarship program. I am confident to say that Blessie Faith Angel Dela Cruz embodies the qualities of a scholar who not only excels academically but also uplifts others through service and leadership.

I firmly believe that she will continue to make significant contributions both within their academic pursuits and in the broader community. I wholeheartedly recommend Blessie Faith Angel Dela Cruz for this scholarship.

Sincerely,

Julius Jheamille D.P Chua, RPm
