Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I am pleased to recommend Angellyn P. Soriano for the PCAFPD Scholarship opportunity. As her teacher, I have had the privilege of witnessing her growth, dedication, and potential as a student. She is a top -performing and dedicated student who has consistently demonstrated excellence in her studies and has earned recognition as an honor student. She is responsible and hardworking learner who consistently strives to perform well in her studies and takes the responsibilities seriously. Angellyn also demonstrates a positive attitude, good character, and respect toward her teachers, classmates, and community. She is determined to pursue her education and achieve her future goals despite the challenges she may face.

I believe that providing her with financial assistance will greatly help her continue her studies and develop her skills and potential. With her determination, perseverance, and willingness to learn, I am confident that Angellyn will make good use of this opportunity and eventually contribute positively to her family and community.
