Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

As her former class adviser, I have had the privilege of watching her shine both as an excellent student and a natural leader in our school community. She has been a consistent honor student who excels in every subject, often earning perfect scores or making only minor mistakes on her exams. Recognized with the Academic Excellence Award for the Business and Entrepreneurship Cluster, her strong dedication to her studies is matched by her impressive creative talent most specifically in the arts. What truly sets her apart is her remarkable leadership and trustworthiness, which shine in roles like classroom treasurer where she carefully tracks every single peso coming in and going out of our class funds. Whether she is managing finances, leading team projects, or organizing activities, she brings extraordinary structure, clarity, and enthusiasm that inspire her peers. Her rare combination of academic rigor, financial integrity, creative flair, and dependable leadership makes her an ideal candidate who truly deserves this scholarship.
