Recommendation

I am pleased to recommend Maedel for the PCAFPD Scholarship. As her teacher and coach in MULAT – School Paper Publication, I have personally witnessed her growth as a student and leader. She consistently demonstrates initiative, organization, and commitment in every responsibility entrusted to her.

As Editor-in-Chief of MULAT, Maedel has shown strong leadership and communication skills. She coordinates effectively with fellow student journalists and uses her writing and communication abilities to contribute to the school community. She has also represented Gabao National High School in various curricular activities and taken on leadership responsibilities through the SSLG at both the school and municipal levels.

Maedel's leadership is reflected not only in the positions she holds but also in her dependability, teamwork, and willingness to serve others. She encourages fellow students to participate and contribute meaningfully to their school and community.

Beyond her accomplishments, Maedel is a determined and hardworking student who continues to pursue her educational goals despite financial challenges. Her perseverance, leadership, and commitment to service make her a deserving candidate for the PCAFPD Scholarship. I believe this opportunity would help her continue her education and further develop her potential to serve others.
