Recommendation

September 25, 2026

To the Scholarship Selection Committee,

It is my pleasure to write this letter of recommendation for my former student Daisy Mae Cose in support of her college scholarship application. As her former Senior High School Adviser (Grade 11) at Buanoy National High School, I have known Daisy Mae for a year or so. In my 3 years of teaching, I have encountered very few students who possess Daisy Mae's rare combination of academic focus, profound leadership capacity, and genuine commitment to community service.

Daisy stands out exceptionally when it comes to student leadership. As an officer in our class she does not merely hold a title; she actively drives positive change. Daisy Mae possess a mature communication style and natural ability to motivate her peers as what I've observed in their performance tasks as to which she is the leader. Even under tight deadlines and limited resources, she always remains collaborative, structured, and focused on execution. A concrete example of he Academically, Daisy Mae is exemplary. She balances her extensive leadership and civic obligations while consistently remaining at the top of her class. This balance demonstrates an exceptional level of discipline, emotional intelligence, and resilience that will undoubtedly serve her well in a rigorous university environment.

Daisy Mae represents the very best of our youth, a visionary leader, a selfless community builder, and a dedicated scholar. I have absolute confidence that she will bring this same level of passion, excellence, and civic duty to your institution. She is fully deserving of this scholarship, and I give her my highest and most enthusiastic recommendation without any hesitation.

Please feel free to reach out to me via email (cherryblnc@yahoo.com) or mobile phone (09055114044) if you require any further insights regarding Daisy Mae's exceptional qualifications.

Sincerely yours,

Cherry Blanco
