Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

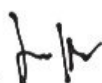

To the PCAFPD Scholarship Selection Committee:

I am pleased to recommend Khalid I. Ladja as a candidate for the PCAFPD Scholarship. I have known Khalid for six years, during which I have had the opportunity to observe his development as an outstanding student, a responsible young leader, and a person who values meaningful relationships and service to others.

Khalid has consistently demonstrated excellent communication skills, allowing him to express his ideas confidently and respectfully and to work effectively with his peers, teachers, and members of the community. He is an active participant in various school activities and willingly takes on responsibilities whenever opportunities for leadership and service arise. His involvement reflects not only his enthusiasm but also his commitment to contributing positively to the school community.

One of Khalid's notable strengths is his ability to build positive community linkages. He understands the importance of working with others and maintaining good relationships with people from different backgrounds. Through his participation in school and community-related activities, he has demonstrated cooperation, initiative, and a genuine willingness to help. Beyond his accomplishments, Khalid is also known as a good friend—approachable, dependable, respectful, and supportive of others. These qualities make him someone whom his peers can trust and look up to.
