PCAFDP scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

It is my privilege to recommend Netalie Rean Tambanillo for the PCAFDP Scholarship. As her teacher, I have had the opportunity to observe her as a learner and to see her dedication, responsibility, and willingness to participate in school and Farm School activities.

Netalie Rean is a hardworking, responsible, and determined learner. She shows commitment to her studies and tries to complete the tasks and activities given to her. She is also willing to learn new skills and apply what she has learned, especially during hands-on Farm School activities.

One of her strengths is her willingness to work with others. She participates in activities that require teamwork and cooperation and shows respect toward her classmates, teachers, and other members of the school community. Through her involvement in Farm School activities, she has learned the importance of responsibility, discipline, cooperation, and helping others.

Netalie Rean also demonstrates the potential to become a responsible young leader in her community. Her participation in school and Farm School activities allows her to develop confidence, practical skills, and a sense of responsibility toward others. She understands that learning is not only about academic achievement but also about being helpful and contributing to the community.

I believe that the PCAFDP Scholarship would provide Netalie Rean Tambanillo with valuable support as she continues her education. She is a learner who is willing to work hard, learn from her experiences, and pursue her goals despite challenges. I respectfully recommend her for consideration for the PCAFDP Scholarship.
