Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

It is my distinct honor to recommend KIMBERLY D. CARIAS for the Peace Corps Alumni Foundation for Philippine Development (PCAFPD) Scholarship. As her teacher at Catarman National High School (CNHS), I have had the privilege of observing her academic dedication, strong moral character, and deeply rooted commitment to community service. KIMBERLY D. CARIAS has consistently demonstrated exemplary leadership both inside and outside the classroom. As an active volunteer with our school's Red Cross Youth council, she has taken the initiative to organize and motivate her fellow students for local environmental and disaster-readiness campaigns. Her hands-on participation in community clean-ups and tree-planting initiatives in Barangay Macagtas, Catarman, highlights her dedication to environmental stewardship and civic responsibility. Beyond her organizational roles, she understands the importance of unity, emergency preparedness, and prompt action during crisis situations, embodying the true spirit of a volunteer.

Her dedication to service extends further into her local community through her involvement in youth fellowship activities and community feeding programs. She actively assists in preparing and serving meals to children and residents in need. Through these selfless endeavors, she has shown a level of empathy, humility, and devotion to human welfare that is rare for a student of her age. What sets KIMBERLY D. CARIAS apart is how her volunteer experience directly shapes her future ambitions. She views service not merely as an extracurricular activity, but as a lifelong calling. Her experiences in community outreach have motivated her to pursue a Bachelor of Science in Criminology, with the specific goal of protecting and supporting vulnerable populations, particularly children. KIMBERLY D. CARIAS possesses the character, leadership capacity, and academic drive that the PCAFPD Scholarship seeks to nurture. She has a clear vision of how she intends to give back to Northern Samar and the broader Philippine community. I am confident that with your financial support, she will excel in her higher education and continue to be a transformative leader. I give her my highest and unreserved recommendation.
